

EPRG Energy & Environment Seminar Programme
Easter Term 2015

On Mondays starting at 12:30

- 27 April      Howard Covington (ClientEarth & Cambridge) Climate Damage, Portfolio Risk and Fossil Fuel Investments
(Judge Business School, Keynes House 107, 12:30–14:00)
- 4 May        James Henderson (Oxford Institute for Energy Studies) The changing geography of Russia's gas sector and its global implications
(Judge Business School, Keynes House 107, 12:30–14:00)
- 11 May      Jacqueline Lam (Hong Kong, visiting EPRG) Public Perception Towards Nuclear Risk in the UK: Implications For Nuclear Safety Emergency Governance (with David Reiner)
(Judge Business School, Keynes House 107, 12:30–14:00)
- 18 May      Thomas Tangeras (Stockholm Institute of Industrial Economics) The competitive benefits of forward contracting over space and time (with Frank Wolak)
(Judge Business School, W2.01, 12:30–13:45)
- 25 May      Tiago Cavalcanti (Cambridge, Faculty of Economics) Winning the oil lottery: The impact of natural resource extraction on growth
(Judge Business School, Keynes House 107, 12:30–14:00)
- 1 June      Paul Warde (Cambridge, Faculty of History) Energy, efficiency and economic growth in Europe: The long view, 1850-2000
(Faculty of Economics, Meade Room, 12:30–14:00)
- 8 June      Laura-Lucia Richter (Cambridge, Faculty of Economics & EPRG) Generalised Multinomial Logit with Posterior Analysis: Exploring Willingness-to-Pay for Grid Resilience
(Judge Business School, W2.02, 12:30–14:00)